

Southwark

Borough Officer Roger Stocker

I have worked for Southwark council for just over two years. My background was in IT but with a keen interest in cycle campaigning.

It is very difficult to accurately access cycling numbers throughout the borough, as there is very little data available, this year we are surveying 5 separate locations as well as laying automatic cycle counters in the borough.

We work in partnership with Southwark Cyclists, not just with the CRISP studies, but also on other soft measures especially trying to increase the amount of cycle training in Southwark Schools.

Communications with local councillors and senior management have raised the general awareness of cycling and enabled many other projects to have a cycling aspect as well as trying to ensure that planning applications cater for cyclists. We have recently launched the cycling strategy for Southwark which should ensure all council policies have due regard to cycling issues.
